RG104 E-1 Box 138 Feb-Apr 1886

Mauch Chunk Pa Feby 27 '86

Hon Daniel M. Fox
Supt U.S. Mint
Phila Pa.

Dear Sir—

I enclose herewith rubbings of one 1796 and two 1797, ½ dollars. Those marked 2 and 3 are in very good condition and the one marked 1 about good. Will you kindly advise what they are worth that is if I was to buy them from a coin dealer—

Yours Truly
L. F. Lesenring

3269

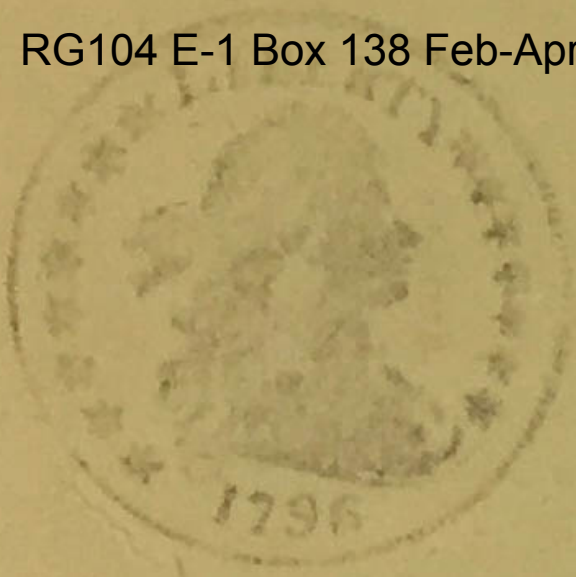
Mauch Chunk. Pa
Feby 27/86

L. F. Leisenring

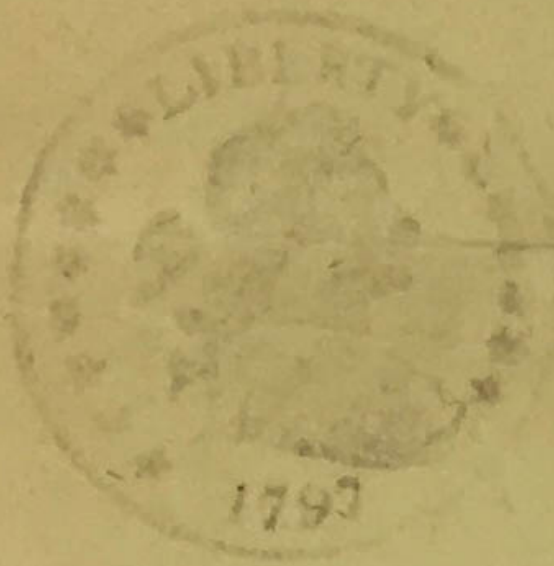
Asks the value of one
1796 & two 1797. 1/2
Dollars

RECEIVED
MAR 1 1886
U. S. MINT, PHILA.

RG104 E-1 Box 138 Feb-Apr 1886



3



2

1

The 1796 & 1797 half dollars are extremely rare. worth from 10 to 100 dollars according to condition.

We better correspond with some Coin dealers, whose cards, address I give below.

Lyman H. Low.
838 Broadway, New York.

J. C. Randall
1904 Chestnut st
Philadelphia

Harold P. Newman
1807 Pine street
Philadelphia.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 138

[Abstract:] Asks the value of one 1796 & two 1797 ½ Dollars.

Mauch Chunk, Pa.
February 27, 1886

Hon. Danl. M. Fox
Supt. U.S. Mint
Phila. Pa.

Dear Sir –

I enclose herewith rubbings of one 1796 and two 1797 ½ dollars. Those marked 2 and 3 are in very good condition and the one marked 1 about good. Will you kindly advise what they are worth that is if I was to buy them from a coin dealer.

Yours Truly,
L.F. Leisinning

[Please see original images for coin rubbings.]

[Enclosed note:]

The 1796 & 1797 half-dollars are extremely rare. Worth from 10 to 100 dollars according to condition.

He better correspond with some coin dealers, whose card address I give below.

Lyman H. Low
838 Broadway, New York.

J.C. Randall
1905 Chestnut St., Philadelphia

Harold P. Newman
1807 Pine Street, Philadelphia